

Reading Comprehension Questions: Answer the following questions in complete sentences on a separate sheet of paper and turn in on the due date for each book report. Please include a title page stapled to your questions. See example at bottom for a reference.

1. When and where did the story take place?
2. Pick one main character from your story and describe them in detail. What three character traits did he/she portray and give evidence from the text to support your answer.
3. What problems did the character have to solve and how was it solved?
4. Explain in detail your favorite part and your least favorite part.
5. Would you recommend this book to a friend? Explain your reasoning in detail.
6. How was the book an example of text-to-text, text-to-world, and text-to-self?
7. If you could ask any character in this book a question, who would you ask and what would you ask them? Why would you ask this character that question?
8. Summarize what happened in the beginning, the middle, and the end of the story in detail. This should be about one paragraph for each section of the book.
9. If you were asked to change the title of the book, what would you name it and why?
10. If you could be a character in this book, which character would you want to be and why?
11. If you were to add a chapter to this book, what would happen next?

This should take up an entire page—the sample is just small for your convenience
